Steps for completing the Course Equivalency (CE) form

<https://abroad.okstate.edu/media/Advisors%20Guide%20to%20Study%20Abroad.Full.082015.pdf>

- 1) Meet with your Academic Advisor to look over your degree sheet to determine which courses you might be able to satisfy with courses taken away from OSU. Look at the courses you might take at your host university. In general, (and this is a preliminary step) do any of them look like possibilities for applying to your degree program? Your advisor does not make any notations on your Course Equivalency yet.
- 2) Read, fill out, and sign the first page of the Course Equivalency form (Section I and II).
- 3) List all possible courses you might take at your host university for all the semesters you'll be abroad in Column A in section III. The more the better!
- 4) Copy/Print course descriptions for each of the courses you listed.
- 5) Make an appointment with the Student Exchange Coordinator, in the Study Abroad/NSE Office (242 Student Union), to determine how your host university courses can be assigned OSU equivalents in Column B.
- 6) Take the CE Form back to your Academic Advisor to fill in Column C, how the courses might apply to your degree program. You may need two signatures if you have a double major or if you have a different advisor for your minor.
- 7) Get a signature of the director of your Academic Advising unit of your College or your Department Head (whichever applies) on the back page (Enrollment Authorization - section IV). If you are completing a double major or a major and a minor in two different colleges, you'll need two signatures.
- 8) Get a signature from the Linda Millis (for Study Abroad) or Margaret Betts (for NSE) in the Financial Aid Office (Section IV). Keep in mind that federal financial aid will NOT pay for excess courses.

9) Make an appointment with the Student Exchange Coordinator, in the Study Abroad/NSE Office, to turn in the completed form. You will receive some final reminders, have the opportunity to ask more questions, and obtain the final signature needed to confirm that you have completed all your program requirements in order to be enrolled in your placeholder credit hours at OSU while you are away.

10) Upload the final, completed document into your online application profile at www.studyabroad.okstate.edu

Students participating in short-term, faculty-led study abroad programs work with Outreach Study Abroad Coordinators in the college administering the program. Program requirements and application processes are set and coordinated by the sponsoring college or department's Outreach Office. Courses occur during winter intersession, spring break, and the summer and vary each semester but may include components during the semester. Please contact the appropriate college office for more information.
