STEP TO APPLY STUDY ABROAD

<http://www.pdx.edu/ed-abroad/sites/www.pdx.edu.ed-abroad/files/2014-Study-Abroad-brochure.pdf>

- Attend a peer advising drop-in session at the Education Abroad Office in East Hall. Visit the Education Abroad website for current dates and times.
- Visit pdx.edu/ed-abroad to learn more about our programs. Research the programs and countries in which you are interested and narrow down where you would like to study.
- Make an appointment with an education abroad advisor; call 503-725-4094 or e-mail edabroad@pdx.edu.
- Begin the application process. Your Education Abroad advisor can assist you with the first steps in this process. Typically, students apply for an education abroad program at least six months before the program is scheduled to begin; be sure to consult our website and your advisor to confirm application deadlines.
- Research the various funding options available to you. Check into scholarships and consult with the Financial Aid office about your financial aid eligibility. Scholarship information can be found at www.pdx.edu/ed-abroad/scholarships-financial-aid
- Consult with your academic advisor about how the education abroad experience will fit into your major.
- Enroll in required prerequisite courses, if applicable, for your program. Also, consider enrolling in INTL 471: Understanding the International Experience, taught at PSU most terms.
- Meet international students here at PSU, especially those from the country or region in which you are planning to study. Volunteer as a conversation partner with the Intensive English Language program at PSU, housed in University Center Building. Visit the website at pdx.edu/esl/languagepractice for more information. Remember, soon you'll be an international student yourself.
