Study Abroad through Another University

<http://sasundergrad.rutgers.edu/forms/study-abroad-non-rutgers-course-proposal>

Students may participate in study abroad programs offered through other universities or outside organizations.

After identifying the program and courses that you plan to take, please follow these steps:

Fill out the Non-Rutgers Study Abroad Course Proposal Form. This form lets SAS know that you are planning to study abroad. You will indicate the courses that you plan to take, and the Rutgers departments that offer similar courses will evaluate these courses to determine if the courses and credits can transfer back toward your Rutgers degree.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE/WITHDRAWAL FORM

Consider the SAS Residency Requirement.

If you are an on-campus resident, contact University Housing. If you have signed a housing contract that will be in effect during the time you are away from Rutgers, you must notify the Housing Office in writing of your intention to cancel your contract. All questions concerning deadlines and procedures for housing should be addressed to the housing office on the campus where you currently reside.

When you return, make sure you send your transcripts (official copy, directly from the university where you studied) to one of the SAS Advising Centers.

Already a Rutgers student, but interested in taking a course at another school?

<http://sasundergrad.rutgers.edu/academics/courses/transfer-courses>

Courses that are not taken at Rutgers-New Brunswick are considered transfer courses. In order to register for a course outside of Rutgers-New Brunswick, you'll need to fill out a Transfer Course Preapproval Form (<http://sasundergrad.rutgers.edu/images/forms/transfercredit.pdf>)

and have it approved by the appropriate Rutgers-NB department as well as the Office of Academic Services.

FAQs about Transfer Course Preapprovals

1. What happens if I don't submit a preapproval form?

You're taking a big risk that the class you take will not be transferable in your specific situation. Don't risk it! Submit a preapproval request for each class you would like to take outside of Rutgers-New Brunswick and wait for a response via email from the Transfer Center.

2. I want to take an online class. Is that okay?

Probably! Like all other classes, you'll need to obtain departmental preapproval.

Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs), including those taught through Coursera, are not transferable to SAS.

3. I want to take a class but I don't have the Rutgers prerequisite. My county college doesn't have the same prerequisite. Can I take it there instead?

NO! You must meet the eligibility requirements to take a class at Rutgers-New Brunswick in order to be granted preapproval to take it anyplace else.

4. I want to take classes at my county college to improve my GPA. How do I do that?

Actually, you can't do that. All transfer courses transfer with credits only. Grades do not ever transfer between one academic institution and another.

5. What is the minimum grade I need to obtain to transfer my summer class?

You need to earn at least a grade of "C". Note that a grade of C- is not transferable.

6. Does my county college automatically send Rutgers my transcript after I complete the course?

No, you need to request to have it sent to the following address:

SAS Transfer Center

Lucy Stone Hall, Room A-204

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey
