学校官网转学分政策 :

IOP STUDY

You are eligible to receive transfer credit if:

The transcript provided by the IOP Program is from an accredited U.S. or foreign college or university (not a Center, Institute, Academy, etc.). Be sure to confirm with your IOP program the name of the institution that will provide your transcript.

The classes you take do not violate any of the credit limitations described on the Credit Limitations tab above.

Note that the transfer credit will be posted as follows:

- Units (but not course titles or grades) are posted on your UCI transcript.
- Grades received abroad are not averaged into your UCI GPA.
- Course titles and grades are posted on the transcript from the IOP institution.

Note that classes offered on IOP programs often change. For a successful experience on an IOP program you need to be able to be flexible regarding the classes you take.

FULLFILL DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

<http://www.studyabroad.uci.edu/prospective/credit.shtml>

You can fulfill degree requirements (major, minor, or GE) on UCEAP, UC Summer Abroad, and IOP Study programs. Follow these steps. Watch this Webshop for more detailed guidance.

<http://www.studyabroad.uci.edu/prospective/fulfillreqs/index.htm>

1. Review the Get Credit and Credit Limitations tabs above.
2. Know your degree requirements. See the UCI Catalog.
3. Locate the courses offered on the study abroad program(s) you are considering. Most are accessible from the program's web site.
4. Compare the courses offered abroad to the courses you need to fulfill your requirements. Compare course titles, descriptions, levels (i.e. upper or lower division), etc. to determine if they seem roughly equivalent.
